

We are a member of the Craven-Pamlico Regional Library. Other member libraries are located in Bayboro, Cove City, New Bern, and Vanceboro.

Anyone in Craven and Pamlico Counties may obtain a free library card. Present photo ID and proof of current address in person or utilize online registration.

Out-of-county residents may qualify for a free card if they are in-county property owners, active military personnel, or employed by non-profit or government services. Others may purchase a yearly card, see next page.

Children under 18 must be accompanied by a parent/guardian to register for a library card. Parent/guardian must present ID and accept responsibility for materials borrowed by child.

Your library card may be used at any of the libraries listed above. You are responsible for all materials checked out on your own card and those belonging to dependents, and for any fines accrued due to damage or late fees.

Patron records are confidential according to North Carolina law and may only be disclosed to the patron with positive proof of identity.
